NORTH CAROLINA

CHAPTER XIV.

GERMAN REFORMED AND LUTHERAN CHURCHES.

German immigration to America grew out of the fearful results of the thirty years' war that left their country desolate and made existence there intolerable. After this came the French invasion of the Rhine country. The homes of the Protestants became a homeless waste. The new world opened an asylum. Thousands left their native land by way of England to reach a home in the wilderness. Most of these landed in Pennsylvania which was becoming Germanized.

During the period between 1778-1775 the archives of the colony of Pennsylvania record the names of more than 30,000 persons who landed at the port of Philadelphia. From this colony the German immigrants to North Carolina to a great extent came.

The most valuable lands in Pennsylvania were taken up. The Proprietor Granville offered advantageous terms to settlers. The resources, climate and fertility of soil attracted industrious people thither.

A goodly number of the Pennsylvania Dutch settled in Alamance and neighboring territory. Those who settled in Alamance stopped on the fertile banks of the Great Alamance and the Stinking Quarter Creeks. These were Albrights, Isleys, Sharps, Holts, Clapp, Fousts, *Emigs, Kimes etc. etc. etc.

These people had but little to do with affairs of State because they could not speak English very well, they spoke Gearman. They held no civil office, but they made good soldiers when the Cherokee Indians came against them. When called from their loom-making, cloth-weaving, dairying and agricultural pursuits, to attend to the lawyers and lawmakers at Hillsboro in 1771—to be sure they went with a vengance, like a storm as farmers and men of the soil are wont to do when called to adjust such affairs.

The Alamance Germans adhered to the German Reform and Lutheran Churches which are closely allied. The German Reform Church came from the high lands of Germany, Switzerland, and were the followers of Calvin as the Lutheran Church followed Luther.

These settlers of Alamance not only brought their bibles (we frequently run across these old German bibles) but they had scarcely reared a log cabin and cleared a few acres of land when they began to build a schoolhouse that served as a place of worship. After better days a more comfortable house of worship was reared but near it still stood the schoolhouse. The school masters—that essential character in every German community—supplied the place of the minister. However, during their great scarcity of ministers, and the Revolutionary war they kept their identity; and they were Whigs decidedly.

"A people that had forsaken all and fled to the wilderness, with the hope to enjoy freedom to worship God, could not be made the creatures of tyrannical government such as that of George III, of England." Rev. Welker.

Their first church was a log building near Law's Church now, on the old road from Hillsboro to Salisbury. It was a Union Lutheran and German Reformed Church. This union was severed by different sentiments growing out of the Regulation movement and the rebellion of the colonies.* Rev. Samuel Luther of Mecklenburg county, an advanced Whig patriot was the Reformed pastor under whose inspiring guidance the Albrights, Ingolds, Schenck and Leinbergers were led to a schoolhouse (near Brick church now) and there undisturbed by factional differences erected an altar for worship. Luther was pastor until the close of the war and was the animating spirit of the community. Then Ludwig Clapp and Christian Faust were elders and Ingold

I, Clerk of the Court of do hereby certify that the foregoing contains the original proceedings of the said Court, in the matter of the application of for a pension.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of office, this day of Every applicant will produce the best proof in his power. This is the original discharge or commissions, [illegible] of these can be obtained, the party will so state under oath, and will then procure, if possible, the testimony of at least one credible witness, stating in detail his personal knowledge of the services of the applicant, and such circumstances connected therewith, as may have a tendency to throw light upon the transaction.

If such surviving witness cannot be found, the applicant will so state in his declaration (9) and he will also, whether he produces such evidence or not, proceed to relate all the material facts, which can be used will be indispensable to a favorable action upon his case. The facts stated will afford one of the principal means of corroborating the declaration of the applicant, if true, or of detecting the imposition, if one be attempted; and unless, therefore, these are amply and clearly set forth, no favorable decision can be expected. All applicants will appear before some Court of Record in the County, in which they reside, and there subscribe and be sworn to, one of the declarations above provided, according to the nature of his case.

The Court will propound the following (m) interrogatories to all applicants for a pension, on account of service in the Militia, State troops, or Volunteers, except the Militia of New Hampshire and the State troops of Virginia.

1. Where and in what year were you born?
2. Have you any record of your age, and if so, where is it?
3. Where were you living when called into service; where have you lived since the Revolutionary war, and where do you now live?
4. How were you called into service; were you drafted, did you volunteer, or were you a substitute? And if a substitute, for whom?
5. State the names of some of the Regular Officers, who were with the troops, where you served; such Continental and Militia Regiments as you can recollect, and the general circumstances of your services.
6. To a Soldier. Did you ever receive a discharge from the service, and if so, by whom was it given and what has become of it?
   To an Officer. Did you ever receive a commission, and if so, by whom was it signed, and what has become of it?
7. State the names of persons to whom you are known in your present neighborhood, and who can testify as to your character for veracity, and their belief of your services as a soldier of the Revolution.

The Court will see that the answers to these questions are embodied in the declaration, and they are requested to annex their opinions of the truth of the statement of the applicant.

The applicant will further produce in Court, if the same can be done, in the opinion of the Court, without too much expense and inconvenience to him, two respectable persons—one of whom should be the nearest clergyman, if one lives in the immediate vicinity of such applicant, who can testify, from their acquaintance with him, that they believe he is of the age he represents, and that he is reputed and believed in the neighborhood to have been a Revolutionary soldier, and that they concur in that opinion. If one of these persons is a Clergyman, the Court will so certify, and they will also certify, to the character and standing of other persons, giving such certificates.

The traditionary evidence of service is deemed very important, in the absence of any direct proof, except the declaration of the party. And the Courts are requested to be very particular in the enquiry whether the belief is general, and whether any doubts have ever existed upon the subject.

Applicants unable to appear in Court by reason of bodily infirmity, may make the declaration before required, and submit to the examination, before a Judge or Justice of a Court of Record of the proper county, and the Judge or Justice will execute the duties, which the Court is herein requested to perform, and will also certify that the applicant cannot, from bodily infirmity, attend the Court.

Whenever any official act is required to be done by a Judge or Justice of a Court of Record, or by a Justice of the peace, the certificate of the Secretary of State or Territory, or of the proper Clerk of the Court or County, under his seal of office, will be annexed, stating that such person is a Judge or Justice of a Court of Record, or a Justice of the Peace, and that the signature annexed is his genuine signature.

No payments can be made on account of the services of any person, who may have died before the taking effect of the act of June 7, 1832; and in case of death subsequent thereto, and before the declaration herein required is made, the parties interested will transmit such evidence as they can procure, taken and authenticated before a Court of Record, showing the services of the deceased, the period of his death, the opinion of the neighborhood respecting such services, the title of the claimant, and the opinion of the Court upon the whole matter.

(a) The declarant must appear in open Court, unless prevented from doing so by reason of bodily infirmity; in which case the declarant will follow the rule laid down for his guidance.

(b) The declarant must make his declaration in the county where he resides. If he should fail to do so, he must assign a sufficient reason for not conforming to the rule.

(c) The age of the claimant must invariably be mentioned.

(d) The declarant must mention the period or periods of the war when he served.

(e) Every continental officer or soldier must give the name of the Colonel under whom he served; otherwise a satisfactory examination of the claim cannot be had. Every claimant must state, with precision, the length of his service, and the different grades in which he served, in language so definite as to enable the Department to determine to what amount of pension he is entitled. In a case where the applicant cannot, by reason of the loss of memory, state precisely how long he served, he should amend his declaration by making an affidavit in the following words:

"Personally appeared before me, the undersigned, a Justice of the Peace, &c. A. B. who, being duly sworn, deposeth and saith, that, by reason of old age, and the consequent loss of memory, he cannot swear positively as to the precise length of his service; but, according to the best of his recollection, he served not less than the periods mentioned below, and in the following grades:—For ——— year ——— months, and ——— days, I served as a ———. For ——— months and ——— days, I served as a ———; and for such service I claim a pension."

It is important, in all cases, to determine with precision the period for which each applicant served, and the particular rank he held, as the law directs the pension to be paid according to the grade of the pensioner and the length of his service. The use of the phrase about three or four months, is too indefinite, and all such qualifying expressions are objectionable. Some persons who apply for pensions merely state that they served two years in the militia, &c. without specifying the tours, the names of the officers, and other particulars respecting their service. This form of a declaration is highly objectionable. It must, in every case, be clearly shown under what officers the applicant served; the duration of each term of engagement; the particular place or places where the service was performed; that the applicant served with an embodied corps called into service by competent authority; that he was either in the field or in garrison; and for the time during which the service was performed, he was not employed in any civil pursuit.

(f) The law makes the relinquishment indispensable.

(g) The opinion of the Court is always required.

(h) The Clerk must give his certificate in every case.

(i) The Clerk must affix his seal, and if it has no device or inscription by which it can be distinguished from any other seal, or if he has no public seal of office, the certificate of a Member of Congress, proving the official character and signature of the certifying officer, should accompany the papers.

Mode of authenticating papers.

In every instance where the certificate of the certifying officer who authenticates the papers is not written on the same sheet of paper which contains the affidavit or other papers authenticated, the certificate must be attached thereto by a piece of tape or narrow ribbon, the ends of which must pass under the seal of office of the certifying officer, so as to prevent any paper from being improperly attached to the certificate.

Proof of Service.

(j) In a case where the name of the applicant is not found on the records of the Department, he must prove his service by two credible witnesses, who are required to set forth in their affidavits the time of the claimant's entering the service, and the time and manner of his leaving the same, as well as the regiment, company, and line to which he belonged. The magistrate who may administer the oaths must certify to the credibility of the witnesses, and the official character and signature of the magistrate must be certified by the proper officer, under his seal of office.

(k) The notes from (a) to (i) are all equally applicable to the cases of Militia men, Volunteers and State Troops. The proof required by rule in note (j) applies to continental troops only.

(l) This traditionary evidence is indispensable in militia cases.

If a witness cannot be found, the declarant must state the fact.

(m) The answers to the interrogatories must all be written, and sent to the War Department, with the declaration.

that no misapprehension or a reference [illegible] upon the case. The facts stated will afford one of the principal means of corroborating the declaration of the applicant, if true, or of detecting the imposition, if it be so; and unless, therefore, these are amply and clearly set forth, no favorable decision can be expected. All applicants will appear before some Court of Record, in the County, in which they reside, and there subscribe and swear to one of the declarations above provided, according to the nature of his case.

The Court will propound the following (or) interrogatories to all applicants for a pension, on account of service in the regular army, state troops, or volunteers, except the Militia of New Hampshire and the State troops of Virginia.

1. Where and in what year were you born?
2. Have you any record of your age, and if so, where is it?
3. Where were you living when called into service; where have you lived since the Revolutionary war, and where do you now live?
4. How were you called into service; were you drafted; did you volunteer, or were you a substitute? And if a substitute, for whom?
5. State the names of some of the Regular Officers, who were with the troops, where you served, such Continental and Militia Regiments as you can recollect, and the general circumstances of your service.
6. If a soldier, Did you ever receive a discharge from the service, and if so, by whom was it given, and what has become of it?
   If an officer, Did you ever receive a commission, and if so, by whom was it signed, and what has become of it?
7. State the names of persons to whom you are known in your present neighborhood, and who can testify as to your character for veracity, and their belief of your services as a soldier of the Revolution.

The Court will see that the answers to these questions are embodied in the declaration, and they are requested to annex their opinion of the truth of the statement of the applicant.

The applicant will further produce to Court, if the same can be done, in the opinion of the Court, without too much expense and inconvenience to him, two respectable persons (one of whom should be the nearest clergyman, if one lives in the immediate vicinity of such applicant), who can testify, from their acquaintance with him, that they believe he is of the age he represents, and that he is reputed and believed in the neighborhood to have been a Revolutionary soldier, and that they concur in that opinion. If one of these persons is a Clergyman, the Court will so certify, and they will also certify, to the character and standing of other persons, giving such certificates.

The traditionary evidence of service is deemed very important, in the absence of any direct proof, except the declaration of the party. And the Courts are requested to be very particular in the inquiry whether the belief is general, and whether any doubts have ever existed upon the subject.

Applicants unable to appear in Court by reason of bodily infirmity, may make the declaration before required, and submit to the examination, before a Judge or Justice of a Court of Record of the proper county, and the Judge or Justice will execute the duties, which the Court is herein requested to perform, and will also certify that the applicant cannot, from bodily infirmity, attend the Court.

Whenever any official act is required to be done by a Judge or Justice of a Court of Record, or by a Justice of the peace, the certificate of the Secretary of State or Territory, or of the proper Clerk of the Court or County, under his seal of office, will be annexed, stating that such person is a Judge or Justice of a Court of Record, or a Justice of the Peace, and that the signature annexed is his genuine signature.

No payments can be made on account of the services of any person, who may have died before the taking effect of the act of June 7, 1832; and in case of death subsequent thereto, and before the declaration herein required is made, the parties interested will transmit such evidence as they can procure, taken and authenticated before a Court of Record, showing the services of the deceased, the period of his death, the opinion of the neighborhood respecting such services, the title of the claimant, and the opinion of the Court upon the whole matter.

BURIAL RECORDS FROM THE ACCOUNT BOOK OF THOMAS CLAP OF DORCHESTER, MASSACHUSETTS, 1762–1797

Transcribed by David Allen Lambert

The following transcriptions of burials appear in an account book kept by Thomas Clap (1713–1798) of Dorchester, Massachusetts. The burial records are preceded by his own family record and the accounts of his personal business affairs (which are omitted here). After the accounts begin his record of names and charges for interments covering the years 1762–1797.[1] Burials appear to have been only those at the Dorchester North Cemetery. Many of the burials correspond with gravestone transcriptions that were published in the Annual Report of the Cemetery Department of the City of Boston for the Fiscal Year 1904–1905 and a Historical Sketch of the First Burying Ground in Dorchester (Dorchester North Burying Ground) (Boston, Mass: Municipal Printing Office, 1905). The Clap account book is part of the Dorchester Antiquarian and Historical Society Records deposited at NEHGS in the late nineteenth century (see New England Ancestors 3 [Summer 2002]:52, 60). The collection can be consulted in the R. Stanton Avery Special Collections Department at NEHGS [MSS 624].[2]

[1] Thomas Clap did not record the names and charges in a strictly chronological manner. Pages 17, 19, 21, 23, and 25 contain his records for 1790–1795.

[2] In addition, two sets of death records exist for Dorchester for some or all of the period 1762–1797: [Twenty-First] Report of the Record Commissioners of the City of Boston Containing Dorchester Births, Marriages, and Deaths to the End of 1825 (Boston: Rockwell & Churchill, 1891), and "Deaths at Dorchester, Massachusetts, 1732–1781," an online database on NewEnglandAncestors.org., from a handwritten transcription of records kept by Samuel Withington, also in the R. Stanton Avery Special Collections Department at NEHGS.
